~~Morris Police Department~~

~~200 E. Chapin St. Morris, IL 60450~~

~~Friday, April 8, 2016~~

~~8:00 am to 4:00 pm~~

Course Description: This training will benefit all levels of public safety, including police officers, correctional officers, and telecommunicators/dispatchers.

In the last four decades, the number of individuals with mental illness living in a community setting has risen drastically, resulting in increased contacts with law enforcement. Agencies across the country have responded by developing new protocols, hiring social workers, and implementing special response teams. This class is designed to increase officer awareness of mental health issues and provide effective intervention techniques for handling mental health crisis situations.

Topics include:

- History & Background
- National Perspectives
- Types of Mental Illness
- Suicide Assessment & Response
- Police Intervention Models
- De-Escalation Strategies
- Violence and Mental Illness
- Emergency Petitions & Legal Issues

Instructor: The program will be conducted by Officer Brian Tison of the University of Illinois Police Department. Brian has been in law enforcement for over 24 years, serving with both the UIPD and the Vermilion County Sheriff's Department. He is currently assigned to the Patrol Division and is a certified Master Firearms Instructor, Field Training Officer, coordinates the Crisis Intervention program for UIPD, and sits on the Board of Directors for the Illinois Crisis Negotiators Association. Brian teaches the police response portion of the 40-hour Crisis Intervention Team (CIT) training statewide and serves as the CIT task force representative for the University of Illinois. In addition, he was named the 2006 CIT Officer of the Year for the State of Illinois.

Course Description: (Morning Session)

Over the course of the last ten years, more than 150 law enforcement officers, on average, have died each year in the line-of-duty. Law enforcement is a dangerous profession and there will always be line-of-duty deaths at the hands of evil people. Unfortunately, too many officer deaths are due to "accidents" attributable to otherwise preventable circumstances. In fact, the number of deaths due to accidents has actually been higher in some years than the number of deaths due to felonious assault. The Below 100 initiative was started in 2011, with the mission of reducing line-of-duty police officer deaths to less than 100 per year through the targeting of common behaviors, practices, and mindsets that often lead to such tragedies.

Issues to be addressed in this program include:

- Wearing seat belts and maintaining safe vehicle speeds
- Wearing body armor
- The power of What's Important Now (W.I.N.)
- The threat of complacency

Officers of all ranks are encouraged to attending this highly intensive 4 hour class.

Train the Trainer Afternoon Session: (Morning and Afternoon)

This 8 hour presentation includes the High Level Overview program (4 hours) and an afternoon Train-the-Trainer portion which will equip trainers to conduct risk assessments, examine policy and make changes if necessary, and present the Below 100 program within their own agencies.

Topics to be addressed include the following:

- Challenges inherent to police culture and effecting organizational change
- Wearing seat belts and maintaining safe vehicle speeds
- Wearing body armor
- The power of What's Important Now (W.I.N.)
- The threat of complacency
- Basics of the Below 100 PowerPoint presentation

Students will be provided with all related materials, including the High Level Overview and supporting items such as sample policies, posters, videos, and relevant supporting articles. Typically, an outline and electronic access to all relevant files will be provided.

PLEASE NOTE: Officers wishing to attend this Train-the-Trainer program MUST attend the Below 100 High Level Overview program conducted during the morning session.

Mental Preparation for Terrorist Attacks and Other Violent Encounters

Frankfort Police Department,
20602 Lincoln Way Lane, Frankfort, IL 60423
Monday, April 25, 2016
8:00 AM till 4:00 PM

Course Description: Historically, the focus of officer safety has been on the dangers posed by violent criminals, but this has changed with the ever-increasing risk of terrorist attacks in America. While officers must still make officer safety a high priority, their primary emphasis must be on taking swift action to stop the killing when dealing with terrorist attacks, which necessitates the taking of greater risks than before. At the same time, they must never lose sight of the importance of effectively controlling violent individuals while carefully guarding against the use of excessive force. This makes it more important than ever for officers to possess the appropriate mindset. Through the extensive use of case studies and classroom participation, this course demonstrates how they can develop the mental tools they need to take appropriate action in the event of a terrorist attack, while also remaining mentally prepared to control violence in a manner that reduces the risk of unnecessary force.

At the conclusion of the training, the officer will be able to:

1. Explain how winners plan for violent encounters
2. Explain why it is important to train realistically.
3. List at least four ways that mental flexibility can be enhanced.
4. List at least four ways to improve decision making under stress
5. List and explain the five basic principles for close-quarters use of the handgun.
6. List at least three means for detecting an ambush.
7. List at least three tactical principles related to responding to terrorist attacks when off duty.
8. Analyze at least one lethal police encounter, and then present at least three learning points that can be learned from the incident.

Instructor: Brian McKenna is the owner of WINNING EDGE TRAINING and its sole instructor. He recently retired after 30 years with the Hazelwood (MO) Police Department. At the time of his retirement, he was assigned to the patrol division as a shift supervisor (lieutenant), and also served as an in-service trainer and lead firearms instructor. He is a state certified police instructor and former academy instructor, and holds a Master's Degree in human resource development.

Brian writes extensively on officer safety topics, and authors Law Officer Magazine's Officer Down column, a regular feature that analyzes officer-involved shootings for key learning points. This experience gave Brian the opportunity to conduct in-depth research into the dynamics of armed encounters and the most effective ways to control them. WINNING EDGE TRAINING is the culmination of this research, packed into training that uses the power of case studies, proven adult learning principles, and a dynamic presentation style to teach officers how to control violent encounters with the proper level of force.

Friday; April 29, 2016

8:00 am till 4:00 pm

GPS alert: use 1151 East Laraway Road 60433, neighbor of Ag. Center

Course Description: This one day course has been updated for 2015, and addresses the latest trends in substance abuse, including the newest designer synthetic drugs such as "Flakka" and the facts on six Illinois cases involving the Russian synthetic heroin known as "Krokodil" from the D.E.A. and Illinois State Police Labs. The latest update on "Molly" and other synthetic drugs of abuse, including "bath salt cocaine" (6-APB) and new forms of synthetic marijuana including Smacked! which hospitalized 77 users. Recommendations for dealing with "drug-induced excited delirium" and alternative prosecution of non-scheduled drugs will be presented. Police drug seizures reported to the Illinois State Police Forensic lab will be highlighted at the county level along with addiction treatment data trends for a real-time picture of drug abuse at the county level. Additionally, substance identification, paraphernalia, and concealment will be explored by a highly-experienced national drug trainer and former police officer.

This class is designed for patrol officers, investigators, or officers working schools, crime prevention, narcotics, or gang units.

Each student will receive a 77-page resource book and the most recent copy of the Illinois State Police Quarterly Drug Report.

This course has been certified by the Illinois Law Enforcement Training and Standards Board.

Instructor: The instructor for this class is Bruce R. Talbot, of Talbot Associates. Sergeant Bruce R. Talbot retired in 2002 after 25 years of police service and has become a noted national speaker on the topic of gateway drugs. Sergeant Talbot has been qualified in criminal court as an expert witness in the field of drug and alcohol impairment DUI trials in Illinois and Texas. He has twice been called to testify as an expert witness before two United States Senate Committees. His testimony has been published in the Congressional Record.

Violent Jihadists in the United States & Law Enforcement Responses

New Lenox Police Department
200 Veterans Parkway, New Lenox, IL 60451
Monday, May 9, 2016
8:00 am till 4:00 pm

Course Description:

It is crucial that U.S. law enforcement is made aware of the dynamics of the violent jihadist threat on U.S. soil and craft solutions to combat it. The full-day program, Violent Jihadists in the United States and Law Enforcement Responses, addresses these and related timely topics as set out below.

Since September 11, 2001, there have been hundreds of violent jihadist terrorist plots in the United States—San Bernardino, Chattanooga, Fort Hood, Times Square, Boston Marathon, to name a few—of varying degrees of sophistication and risk. Some of the plots were in the theoretical phase, others at disparate levels of planning, with the remainder reaching the execution phase. The violent jihadist terrorists included self-selected jihadists working alone; others comprised small groups, while larger cabals constituted the remaining groups. The violent jihadist plots in the U.S. encompassed many modus operandi and targets.

Topics include:

- History of Global Jihad: Selected Ideologues, Groups, and their Impact on Current Jihadists
- Selected Jihadist Activities in the United States Prior to September 11, 2001
- Selected Jihadist Activities in the United States After September 11, 2001
 - Al Qaeda, Al Qaeda in the Arabian Peninsula, Other Jihadists and their Activities on U.S. Soil
 - Combating Jihadists in the U.S. through the use of the Material Support Statutes
 - ISIS/Islamic State connected/inspired attacks in the U.S.
- Selected Law Enforcement Responses, Tools, and Strategies to Combat Domestic Jihadists

Instructor: Dean C. Alexander is Director, Homeland Security Research Program and Professor, Homeland Security at the School of Law Enforcement and Justice Administration at Western Illinois University. Prof. Alexander's teaching, research, and speaking activities encompass terrorism, security, and legal issues. He has lectured in ten countries, including to law enforcement and military officials at North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO), U.S. State Department, and National Intelligence University events. Also, he has trained Illinois Statewide Terrorism and Intelligence Center, Oregon Fusion Center, Northern California Regional Intelligence Center, Michigan State Police, Milwaukee Police Department, Yuma Police Department, McAllen Police Department, and the Iowa Homeland Security and Emergency Management Department personnel, among others law enforcement entities and professionals.

Prof. Alexander's professional experience includes executive, business development, and legal positions in the United States and abroad, including Chile, Israel, and the United Kingdom. He worked as a consultant to NATO, United Nations, U.S. State Department, the World Bank, Organization of American States, homeland security firms, and investment companies. Since publishing on terrorism in 1991, Prof. Alexander has written several books on the subject, including Business Confronts Terrorism: Risks and Responses (University of Wisconsin Press, 2004) and Terrorism and Business: The Impact of September 11, 2001 (Transnational, 2002). He recently co-authored the book, The Islamic State: Combating the Caliphate Without Borders (Lexington Books, September 2015). Prof. Alexander has published peer-reviewed articles, articles, and op-eds on terrorism, security, and legal issues.

Domestic and international media have interviewed Prof. Alexander. He is on the Advisory Board of Security Magazine. Prof. Alexander was a founding Advisory Council member of the Marsh Center for Risk Insights, research fellow at the Chesapeake Innovation Center (the first business incubator focused on homeland security), and served on the Anti-Terrorism Advisory Council executive board for the Central District of Illinois.

Rapid Medical Response

"Self-aid/Buddy-aid" (SA/BA)

Kankakee County Sheriff's Office
3000 S. Justice Way, Kankakee, IL 60901
Tuesday, May 10, 2016
8:00 am till 4:00 pm

Course Description: Patrol officers are at greater risk than ever before due to escalating violence, better trained terrorists, and offenders who have military or paramilitary style training. The ever increasing intent of these criminal elements is to kill first responders in military type ambushes and wreak havoc in urban environments. Our medical and police first responders are not adequately trained or equipped to deal with the critical moments during these horrific events. Paramedics are not allowed into combat zones while shooting is still occurring. The police, therefore, are on their own to treat themselves and others for wounds sustained during a response to multiple shooters.

Consequently, this workshop incorporates military style responses to active shooters with combat medical support that parallels the tactics required. This workshop familiarizes patrol officers with the basic uses of the Israeli bandage and other methods of emergency self-medical care during active shooting incidents or terrorist attacks. The workshop features use of combat tourniquets and pressure dressings similar to those used by the U. S Military in Iraq and Afghanistan.

Course Summary: This 1-day course provides officers with the skills to provide life-saving self-aid/buddy-aid (SA/BA) in the event of serious injury. What differentiates this training from a standard first-aid course is the focus on providing proven tactical medical concepts in an austere and hostile patrol environment. During the morning session, officers will receive lecture and practical instruction in the core concepts SA/BA; airway/breathing, bleeding control/shock, assessment, high-threat evacuation. In the afternoon, officers will participate in multiple law enforcement based scenarios. These scenarios allow each officer to apply the SA/BA concepts learned in a dynamic patrol based setting.

- Mental/Physical Response to Trauma
- Airway/Breathing Management
- Bleeding Control/Shock Management
- Rapid Casualty Evaluation
- High-Threat Casualty Evacuation
- Hands-On/Practical Training
- Scenario Training

The Instructors: Are supplied by, Professional Tactical EMS Consulting, (PROTEC). PROTEC specializes in providing tactical EMS consulting/contracting services and medical training to law enforcement agencies.

911 Homicide Calls and Statement Analysis:

"Is the Caller the Killer?"

Plainfield Fire Protection District (Headquarters)

23748 W. 135th Street; Plainfield, IL 60544

Thursday; May 12, 2016

8:00 am till 4:00 pm

The subject matter of this course falls within the key training guidelines for the in-service training requirements for Lead Homicide Investigator.

Course Description: This one-day training course is designed for detectives, supervisors, dispatchers, and prosecutors who investigate or prosecute homicides. The course instructs on the guilty and innocent indicators made by individuals during 911 homicide phone calls. Each indicator is thoroughly defined, discussed and exemplified by actual 911 homicide phone calls.

The course goal is to make each attendee aware of the importance of examining the 911 calls made by individuals reporting a death or homicide. One-third of all murders call in their own crime pretending to be innocent. Much can be learned about the offender and offense from a critical analysis of the taped call.

Topics will include:

- Analysis of Actual Homicide Calls
- Indicators of Innocence
- Indicators of Guilt
- Utilizing the C.O.P.S. Scale
- Importance of Critical Analysis
- Columbus Case Review
- Sanders Case Review
- Eleventh, Minnesota Case Review
- Caylee Anthony Case Review
- In-Class Exercises

Instructor: Lt. Tracy Harpster has served with the Moraine Police Department in Ohio since 1984. Course Description: This one-day advanced course is designed for detectives, supervisors, dispatchers, and prosecutors who have previously attended the 1 day Basic course. The course goal is to make each attendee aware of the importance of examining the 911 calls made by individuals reporting a death or homicide. One-third of all murders call in their own crime pretending to be innocent. Much can be learned about the offender and offense from a critical analysis of the taped call.

Topics will include:

1. Review of Guilty and Innocent Indicators from basic course
2. New/Additional Guilty and Innocent Indicators
3. Using the CopScale model during the homicide investigation:
 - a. Primary use for dispatchers/call takers
 - b. Primary use for street units
 - c. Primary use for investigators
4. Dynamics of Suicide 911 calls:
 - a. Some innocent callers feel guilt or responsibility for not helping/ignoring the decedent's suicide threats.
 - b. Some innocent callers may have been aware of pending suicide/given advice or assistance to terminally ill callers
5. Jon Benet Ramsey Case
6. Lt. Barton Case
7. Rabbi Neulander Case
8. Gary Coleman Case
9. David Stagg Case
10. Darlie Routier Case
11. Alberta, Dayton Case
12. Knollcraft, Dayton Case

Monday, May 16, 2016

8:00 am till 4:00 pm

Course Description: This one day, practical exercise seminar is designed to teach officers the basic concepts of Cover and Contact. Officers will learn the proper techniques for removing suspect(s) from vehicles, safely covering the suspects and contact officer, and securing the location for safe vehicles searches. Officers will work in teams of two and three, to mirror real patrol situations. Scenarios will involve traffic stops and building entry for call response.

Officers will learn to recognize and respond to the presence of IEDs in vehicles, buildings and on subjects. Course content will include both classroom and scenario activities. Officers will review Department of Homeland Security protocols for local department contact with suspected and known terrorists, as well as scene safety and personnel safety protocols. The scenarios will include IED mockups and hostage situations.

Course Content Includes:

- Learn standard hand signals to let responding officers know what type, if any back up or additional response is needed.
- Learn the specific responsibilities of the contact officer.
- Learn the specific responsibilities of the cover officer.
- Review techniques for vehicle stop locations and suspect-officer interaction.
- Learn how to deal with multiple suspects on traffic stops.
- Review techniques of systematic vehicle searches for contraband
- Gain a basic knowledge of current improvised explosive devices (IEDs)
- Learn the action to take for IEDs and equipment available to assist in their detection
- Gain heightened awareness of the effects of explosives and terrorism
- Learn how to contact STIC, JTTF, and DHS for terrorist involved stops

This class is a soft air, weapons training course. Officers need to bring their duty belts and should (not required) have their department vehicles for scenarios. Officers are encouraged to have either sweatshirts or long sleeve shirts available to wear. Face protection and Air Soft® type weapons will be issued at the training site.

The instructors: The lead instructor is Michael Drumm. All instructors are certified, full-time police officers, and are members of the Illinois Tactical Officers Association and the International Law Enforcement Educators and Trainers Association. Drumm is also a DHS contract instructor.

Tactical Field Interviewing

New Lenox Police Department
200 Veterans Parkway, New Lenox, IL 60451

Thursday & Friday, June 2 & 3, 2016

8:00 am – 4:00 pm

The subject matter of this course falls within the key training guidelines for the in-service training requirements for Lead Homicide Investigator.

Course Description: The 2-day Wicklander-Zulawski (WZ) Seminar on Tactical Field Interviewing is designed to teach and reinforce the sound fundamentals of the field interviewing process for the patrol officer, field investigator, detective, police officer, special agent, or other law enforcement professional. Course participants learn a broad range of cutting-edge methods and proprietary tools to conduct more effective interviews and interrogations in their terrorism-related investigations that will result in more actionable intelligence, quicker admissions and better statements.

Instruction includes a comprehensive overview of non-confrontational interviewing methods to overcome the resistance of a traditional criminal or terrorist operative. Attendees will learn to assess verbal and non-verbal behavior, offer rationalizations, handle denials, detect deception and evaluate truthfulness. This course will enhance communication, interview and interrogation skills for a more focused and successful investigation of terrorist activities.

The non-confrontational approach to field interviewing has been recognized for the way it produces faster and more accurate results. In many cases, admissions are achieved without the suspect ever making a denial or protesting his innocence. Additionally, suspects often reveal more about their activities than during a traditional confrontational interrogation approach. The multiple strategies taught in this class provide flexibility to alter interviewing strategies depending on the reaction of the suspect. Simply said, if one method is not working, the investigator has additional techniques to utilize.

COURSE OBJECTIVES: After completing this course of instruction the participant will be able to:

- Understand the law on criminal interviews and interrogations and the development of the admission into legally acceptable confessions.
- Interpret and evaluate the suspect's verbal and physical behavior as they relate to truth and deception during field interviews.
- Apply factual analysis to the interviewing process.
- Assist subjects in recalling events and details of past activity.
- Employ non-accusatory interview techniques to obtain information and detect subject's truthfulness.
- Enhance their skills to effectively investigate ongoing, organized drug trafficking, money laundering, terrorist financing, and other financial transactions suggestive of criminal activity.
- Uncover patterns, trends and correlation indicative of money laundering or other criminal activity.

~~Crisis Intervention Team Training (CIT)~~

~~40-Hour State Certified Course~~

~~Plainfield Fire Protection District (Headquarters)~~

~~23748 W. 135th Street, Plainfield, IL 60544~~

~~Monday – Friday*, June 13 – 17, 2016~~

~~8:00 am till 5:00 pm~~

Class on Friday will be held at the Plainfield Police Dept., 14300 Coil Plus Dr. Plainfield, IL 60544*

Purpose: Law enforcement officers are generally the first responders to crisis events. This course is also open to local and county sworn corrections officers. It is important to have individuals in law enforcement who can utilize effective strategies, insuring public and personal safety. The Crisis Intervention Team (CIT) training provides officers with education about mental illness and other behavioral disabilities as well as providing skills and tools for effectively and safely interacting with someone who is experiencing a crisis.

Course Description: Crisis Intervention Team training is an in-depth 40-hour specialized course of study for uniformed patrol law enforcement officers and sworn corrections officers who, in addition to their regular service calls, will be required to respond to crisis calls involving people who have behavioral disabilities. CIT officers will use their acquired knowledge and skill to effectively handle crisis situations and make the most appropriate disposition, which will best serve the individual and the community.

The key components of this course cover the following:

- Officers are exposed to the dynamics of mental illness, developmental disabilities, child and adolescent disorders, elderly individuals with behavioral issues, returning combat veterans, people who have excited delirium, and people with substance abuse/co-occurring disorders. This training will allow officers to make quick and effective decisions utilizing options they have to resolve the crisis.
- Officers are exposed to the experiences, viewpoints and concerns of persons with mental illnesses (consumers). Officers will meet with consumers in order to gain their perspective and learn from them.
- Officers receive instruction and demonstrations in basic listening and responding skills along with crisis interventions strategies. Real life crisis scenarios provided by trained professional actors with the assistance of state-certified CIT officers are presented to officers for them to demonstrate their resolution skills.
- The scenario based training will take place on Thursday, June 16th, attendees will be required to wear their "department uniform of the day" for their current assignment.

Instructors: The course will be conducted by a diverse group of law enforcement and behavioral health professionals, including active CIT officers from various parts of the State of Illinois. An essential part of the CIT course is scenario-based skills training. All scenarios are facilitated and evaluated by certified CIT officers.

Friday, June 17, 2016

Marseilles National Guard Range will be utilized for June 17th, at 9:00 am

Course Description: Recent high violence incidents, including deliberate ambushes and attacks against law enforcement officers and citizens by offenders armed with long guns, have caused police agencies to add centerfire rifles and carbines as standard patrol/emergency response equipment.

This course is appropriate for the officer with no previous rifle training. Officers who have attended previous rifle/carbine courses are encouraged to attend as an update and refresher. This intensive three day course is also designed to give firearms instructors and special weapons users a solid foundation in and understanding of the tactical application of rifle/carbine systems in law enforcement activities.

Through classroom instruction and hands-on training, students will learn:

- Safe weapon handling, operation, and deployment in high-stress police field operations
- Care, cleaning, and maintenance of the firearm
- Disassembly, reassembly, and basic armorers' considerations
- Accessory equipment including night sights, scopes, flash suppressors, compensators, scope mounts, and check pieces
- External and terminal ballistics of .223(556 m/m), and pistol caliber rounds. Selecting the types of bullet configurations that apply to different tactical situations.
- Position shooting on ranges from 3 yards to 330 yards (330 yds. at Marseilles NG Base) - Close-quarter shooting skills
- Tactical deployment issues of the rifle/carbine

Upon completion of this program, students will have been trained to safely and effectively employ the rifle/carbine in law enforcement applications. Certification of this course has been approved by the Illinois Law Enforcement Training and Standards Board.

Rapid Medical Response

"Self-aid/Buddy-aid" (SA/BA)

Monee Police Department,
5356 W. Main Street, Monee, IL 60449

Thursday, June 23, 2016

8:00 am till 4:00 pm

Course Description: Patrol officers are at greater risk than ever before due to escalating violence, better trained terrorists, and offenders who have military or paramilitary style training. The ever increasing intent of these criminal elements is to kill first responders in military type ambushes and wreak havoc in urban environments. Our medical and police first responders are not adequately trained or equipped to deal with the critical moments during these horrific events. Paramedics are not allowed into combat zones while shooting is still occurring. The police, therefore, are on their own to treat themselves and others for wounds sustained during a response to multiple shooters.

Consequently, this workshop incorporates military style responses to active shooters with combat medical support that parallels the tactics required. This workshop familiarizes patrol officers with the basic uses of the Israeli bandage and other methods of emergency self-medical care during active shooting incidents or terrorist attacks. The workshop features use of combat tourniquets and pressure dressings similar to those used by the U. S Military in Iraq and Afghanistan.

Course Summary: This 1-day course provides officers with the skills to provide life-saving self-aid/buddy-aid (SA/BA) in the event of serious injury. What differentiates this training from a standard first-aid course is the focus on providing proven tactical medical concepts in an austere and hostile patrol environment. During the morning session, officers will receive lecture and practical instruction in the core concepts SA/BA; airway/breathing, bleeding control/shock, assessment, high-threat evacuation. In the afternoon, officers will participate in multiple law enforcement based scenarios. These scenarios allow each officer to apply the SA/BA concepts learned in a dynamic patrol based setting.

- Mental/Physical Response to Trauma
- Airway/Breathing Management
- Bleeding Control/Shock Management
- Rapid Casualty Evaluation
- High-Threat Casualty Evacuation
- Hands-On/Practical Training
- Scenario Training

The Instructors: Are supplied by, Professional Tactical EMS Consulting, (PROTEC). PROTEC specializes in providing tactical EMS consulting/contracting services and medical training to law enforcement agencies.

Basic School Resource Officer Course

Plainfield Police Department
14300 Coil Plus Drive, Plainfield, IL 60544
Monday – Friday; August 1 - 5, 2016
8:00 am till 5:00 pm

Course Description:

The Basic School Resource Officer Course is a forty-hour block of instruction designed for any law enforcement officer with two years or less experience working in an educational environment and school administrators.

The course emphasizes three main areas of instruction:

- Functioning as a police officer in the school setting
- Working as a resource and problem solver
- Developing teaching skills

Attendees will gain a solid working knowledge of the School Resource Officer concept and how to establish a lasting partnership with their schools. The course is taught on a five day, eight hour format. Classes begin promptly at 8:00 am each morning and run through 5:00 pm each day. Attendees are required to attend all sessions in order to obtain the National School Resource Officer Basic Course Certificate. There is a written examination, multiple discussions, and at least one graded practical exercise for each student.

Who Should Attend:

The School Resource Officer Program is a true Community Based Police program. Although many of the officers attending our courses will be assigned as School Resource or School Liaison Officers, the course is designed to benefit school administrators working with law enforcement and any law enforcement officer working with youth, or in an educational environment.

This includes: School Resource Officers; School District Officers; DARE Officers; GREAT Officers; Juvenile Officers; Community Officers; School Security Officers; School Liaison Officers; School Administrators and Probation Officers.

Instructors: Will be supplied by the National Association of School Resource Officers (NASRO). NASRO, the world's leader in school-based policing, is a not-for-profit organization founded in 1991 with a solid commitment to our nation's youth. NASRO is an organization for school-based law enforcement officers, school administrators, and school security/safety professionals working as partners to protect students, school faculty and staff, and the schools they attend.

Member Tuition: $300.00, includes one year NASRO membership; please register thru Tri-River as normal, you will then be given additional registration instructions.

Non-Member Tuition: $495.00, includes one year NASRO membership; non-members must register thru NASRO, please follow one of these links for registration:
