Supervising & Managing the Field Training Process

(Sokolove Model)

New Lenox Police Department

200 Veterans Parkway, New Lenox, IL 60451

Tuesday - Friday, January 14 – 17, 2020

8:00 am till 4:00 pm

This course complies with the guidelines of the following mandate(s): Proposed: Human Rights | Cultural Competency Civil Rights | Constitutional & Proper Use of LE Authority | Legal Updates | Procedural Justice

Course Description: This four-day hands-on, problem-based learning course is specifically designed for first-line patrol and administrative support services managers responsible for supervising and managing Field Training Officers and probationary law enforcement employees. Instruction will include all revisions to the Process.

The course emphasizes the necessary components of supervising probationers and Field Training Officers at the patrol shift level to ensure that administrative guidelines and legal requirements are met. The course highlights two essential supervisory responsibilities: (1) the ability to comprehensively examine probationer performance documentation in accordance with the totally revised standardized Field Training and Evaluation Process assessment guidelines, and (2) auditing the probationer's on-the-job training to insure the Field Training Unit utilizes the most appropriate instructional techniques for training task mastery and when necessary, corrective action. The instructional presentation will focus upon discussion of critical Field Training issues as well as hands on completion of the course materials during small group and individual in-class exercises. Students are required to complete out-of-classroom reading assignments.

Course content will include:

- Insuring that your Agency's Field Training and Evaluation Process structure actually works.
- In-class review and assessment of participating agency Probationer's Training and Evaluation Manual (POM).
- Staffing the Field Training Unit: Recruitment, Testing, Selection and Training of FTOs.
- Realistic definition and expectations of Field Training Officer duties/responsibilities.
- Issues of compensation for Field Training Unit personnel.
- FTO scheduling issues/resource allocation.
- Utilizing the non-numerically anchored performance assessment scale and guidelines including 2009 revisions.
- Performance assessment errors that compromise the objectivity and legality of Field Training.
- Auditing the Daily Observation Report: Application of the standardized evaluation guidelines.
- Auditing the FTO's application of the on-shift instructional techniques.
- Auditing Probationer training and coaching documentation. Are the FTOs doing what they were trained to do?
- Conducting the Weekly Performance Summary process meeting.
- Special focus: Not Responding to Training (NRT) Probationer and extension of training

- Supervising the development of the NRT Probationer's Performance Improvement Plan.
- Supervising Probationers during Step V, the Solo Patrol Certification Period.
- Reorientation of personnel returning to Patrol Operations after extended street-absence.
- Preparing Probationer Employment Status Reports/Recommendation for the Chief Executive.
- Assessing the effectiveness of the Field Training Officers and the Field Training Process.
- Avoiding constructive discharge allegations
- Defending against State and Federal Court wrongful discharge claims.

Students should bring a copy of their Agency's current Field Training and Evaluation Process manual and forms.

Orland Park Police Department
15100 S. Ravinia Ave., Orland Park IL 60462
Thursday, January 23, 2020
8:00 am till 4:00 pm

This course complies with the guidelines of the following mandate(s):

Law Update | Civil Rights | Constitutional & Proper Use of LE Authority | Lead Homicide Investigator

Course Description: Each year, law enforcement officers are injured, killed, or indicted as a result of improper searches. This eight hour presentation will provide an in-depth analysis of fatal searching mistakes that are frequently acknowledged but seldom addressed. This class has been specifically developed for male AND female patrol officers of all experience levels. However, any personnel responsible for conducting body searches on subjects, whether on the street or in lock-up, will benefit from attending. Unique circumstances surrounding the proper searching of females by officers of the same or opposite sex will be examined in detail. Students will gain insight and be provided the opportunity to exchange ideas and helpful tips that can be put to use immediately.

Topics to be addressed include the following:

- * Proper search methods * Common search mistakes * Same sex searches
- * Opposite sex searches * Strip searches * Policy and procedure
- * Legal doctrine pertaining to different types of searches, including strip searches

Students will participate in practical search exercises as part of this class and are asked to bring a copy of their current policy regarding searches/lock-up procedures to class.

Instructor:

The instructor for this course is Sgt. Julie Johnson of the Carol Stream Police Department, where she has served for 17 years. Prior to joining the CSPD in 1997, she was a dispatcher/telecommunicator for the Woodridge Police Department for three years.
