The Reid Technique of Interviewing and Interrogation®

New Lenox Police Department,

New Lenox Police Department 200 Veterans Parkway, New Lenox, IL 60451

Tuesday - Thursday; March 31 – April 2, 2020

8:00 am till 3:00 pm

This course complies with the guidelines of the following mandate(s):

Civil Rights | Constitutional & Proper Use of LE Authority | Lead Homicide Investigator | Legal Updates

Course Description: This is a 3-day, twenty-one hour program on the Reid Technique of Interviewing and Interrogation®. The course includes; interview and interrogation preparation, behavior symptoms, the Reid® Behavior Analysis Interview (B.A.I.) and “The Reid Nine Steps of Interrogation” which include:

Interview and Interrogation Preparation

The style, appearance and approach of the successful interviewer and interrogator will be covered, as will the room settings conducive to these activities.

Behavior Symptoms

Differences in verbal and nonverbal behavior between innocent and deceptive persons often can be observed, and are thus indicative of whether or not a suspect is telling the truth. A guilty suspect makes a conscious decision to resist your effort to get at the truth. In trying to maintain a structure of verbal lies, however, that suspect most often develops internal conflicts and tensions which manifest themselves in nonverbal behavior. Thus, body movements, facial expressions, eye contact, attitudes, posture and grooming gestures can indicate whether the subject is telling the truth or lying. Nonverbal indicators can also be used to determine whether the suspect under interrogation is listening, maintaining a defiant attitude or is ready to confess. You will learn how to observe and assess critical behavior symptoms and use those assessments to determine whether to move on to the next step of the interrogation.

Reid® Behavioral Analysis Interview (B.A.I.)

The information developed through use of the standard investigative questions of “who,” “what,” “when” and “how” is often not adequate — even in combination with physical evidence — to identify the wrongdoer. The Reid Behavioral Analysis Interview is a technique that uses a structured set of non-accusatory behavior-provoking questions developed as a result of many thousands of interviews. The B.A.I. makes it easier to determine whether the suspect is telling the truth about involvement in the matter under investigation, and is flexible enough to be used in cases ranging from employee theft to homicide.

The Reid Nine Steps of Interrogation®

The nine-step approach to a successful interrogation has been developed by John E. Reid and Associates through extensive research and practical experience over a period of 60 years. Because of the subject’s importance, approximately half the classroom time in the seminar is devoted to the interrogation process and detailed examination of each of the nine steps.

John Reid and Associates will provide the instructor for this class.

John Reid Advanced Interviews & Interrogations

New Lenox Police Department
200 Veterans Parkway, New Lenox, IL 60451
Friday; April 3, 2020
8:00 am to 3:00 pm

This course complies with the guidelines of the following mandate(s):
Civil Rights | Constitutional & Proper Use of LE Authority | Lead Homicide Investigator | Legal Updates

Course Description: This course is for individuals who have completed the 3-day seminar on The Reid Technique of Interviewing and Interrogation, and builds upon their knowledge of the Reid Technique.

Most unsuccessful interrogations are a result of the investigator's inability to move the guilty suspect from one stage of the interrogation to the other. Reid has defined three distinct stages of the interrogation that may give the investigator problems:

1. Defiant stage: seven proven tactics to move suspects out of this stage
2. Neutral stage: four proven techniques to get the suspect to listen to the interrogator's themes
3. Acceptance stage: three specific techniques that will dramatically increase admissions of guilt

People who commit crimes do so to fulfill certain needs. What needs were satisfied is based upon the case facts, evidence and results of the interview — types of needs that will be thoroughly discussed are:

- Real need crimes
- Impulse need crimes
- Esteem need crimes
- Lifestyle need crimes

The Advanced Seminar will also address the following specific problem areas for some but not all interrogations:

- Juvenile interrogations
- Interrogation regarding guilty knowledge
- Playing one suspect against another
- Interrogation on multiple crimes

This course will be taught by Instructors with John E. Reid and Associates, Inc.

8:00 am till 4:00 pm

This course complies with the guidelines of the following mandate(s): Civil Rights | Constitutional and Proper Use of Law Enforcement Authority | Lead Homicide Investigator | Legal Updates

Course Description:

This course will cover the different opioids and opiates that are out there including heroin, fentanyl, prescription pain killers and more. The instructor will discuss the effects of opioids on users, how they break down in the body and how it kills. The initial segment will conclude with the effects of Narcan and why users are still overdosing. The instructor will lead a discussion on charges related to drug overdoses including murder and manslaughter and what needs to be proven for different charges. He will review state-specific homicide laws and the elements of the different statutes for proper charges as well as the potential for federal charges. The next segment will review whether to charge or not charge. The next segment will be how to anticipate what the Defense will present and how to make sure you effectively cover the areas of concern. The class will review establishing a policy and strategies on how to work the case. The next topic presented will focus on working the crime scene and getting evidence for drug case and homicide case. The instructor will discuss the critical importance of knowing your case and presenting it in a professional manner. He will provide instruction in the necessary preparation and legal background information necessary to manage a complex death investigation. Testimony and proper preparation for trial will be discussed along with a perspective from the judge or jury's point of view.

Topics that will be covered include:

Apply factual analysis to the investigation of the opioid overdose death crime scene. • Uncover patterns, trends and correlation of evidence. • Recognize the important information contained in the crime scene and subsequent forensic examination of the body; and their implications for the investigator. • Discuss, analyze, and evaluate investigative strategies in and their specific application to opioid death investigations. • Learn the sources of information available to an investigator making a death inquiry and the contents of each. • Develop leads, identify potential suspects and effectively interview those responsible. • Understand what opioids/opiates are, their effects on users, how they break down in the body and how they kill. • Understand what to be collected at the scene: drugs, syringe or foil, phones, ledgers, fingerprint works kit and videos in the area. • Assess whether to charge or not charge drug dealers with a drug induced death and reasons not to. • Utilize statements from witnesses, informants, undercover officers, drug dealers and examples from similar cases from around the country. • Understand how the defense attorneys will present their case and the proof you will need to establish the dealer sold the drugs that killed, the victim decided to use drugs, and the dealer's intent to cause death or recklessness. • Understand how to work with your prosecutor on how and who will present evidence in court. • Recognize the legal implications as they relate to search, seizure, interview and interrogation. • Evaluate investigative decisions from investigator, prosecutor, and defense perspectives. • Discuss the evidence and testimony examining it from a defense and prosecutorial perspective.

Crisis Intervention Team Training (CIT)

Bourbonnais Police Department
700 Main St. NW, Bourbonnais, IL 60914
Monday – Friday; April 20 – 24, 2020
8:00 am till 4:00 pm

Please note: Officers are required to have 2 years of service in a non-probationary status before he/she may attend this class.

This course complies with the guidelines of the following mandate(s): Civil Rights | Constitutional & Proper Use of LE Authority | Cultural Competency | Human Rights | Legal Updates | Procedural Justice | Mental Health Awareness

Purpose: Law enforcement officers are generally the first responders to crisis events. This course is also open to local and county sworn corrections officers. It is important to have individuals in law enforcement who can utilize effective strategies, insuring public and personal safety. The Crisis Intervention Team (CIT) training provides officers with education about mental illness and other behavioral disabilities as well as providing skills and tools for effectively and safely interacting with someone who is experiencing a crisis.

Course Description: Crisis Intervention Team training is an in-depth 40-hour specialized course of study for uniformed patrol law enforcement officers and sworn corrections officers who, in addition to their regular service calls, will be required to respond to crisis calls involving people who have behavioral disabilities. CIT officers will use their acquired knowledge and skill to effectively handle crisis situations and make the most appropriate disposition, which will best serve the individual and the community. Course is certified by the Illinois Law Enforcement Training and Standards Board.

The key components of this course cover the following:

- Officers are exposed to the dynamics of mental illness, developmental disabilities, child and adolescent disorders, elderly individuals with behavioral issues, returning combat veterans, people who have excited delirium, and people with substance abuse/co-occurring disorders. This training will allow officers to make quick and effective decisions utilizing options they have to resolve the crisis.
- Officers are exposed to the experiences, viewpoints and concerns of persons with mental illnesses (consumers). Officers will meet with consumers in order to gain their perspective and learn from them.
- Officers receive instruction and demonstrations in basic listening and responding skills along with crisis interventions strategies. Real life crisis scenarios provided by trained professional actors with the assistance of state-certified CIT officers are presented to officers for them to demonstrate their resolution skills.
- The scenario-based training will take place on Thursday, March 7th, attendees will be required to wear their "department uniform of the day" for their current assignment.

About the Instructors: The course will be conducted by a diverse group of law enforcement and behavioral health professionals, including active CIT officers from various parts of the State of Illinois. An essential part of the CIT course is scenario-based skills training with crisis scenarios provided by trained professional actors. All scenarios are facilitated and evaluated by certified CIT officers.

The course emphasizes the FTO's role in assisting probationers certify for solo patrol operations by applying the knowledge and skills acquired during Basic Police Training/Certification and using them according to agency policy, procedures and community service delivery standards. The instruction highlights two essential Field Training and Evaluation Process skills: 1) the ability to examine and objectively document the probationer's job behaviors using the 2009 revised non- numerical/behaviorally anchored standardized assessment guidelines and, 2) analyzing the probationer's training needs and using proper instructional techniques for corrective action. The instruction presentation will focus upon discussion as well as hands-on application of the course materials in small group and individual/student exercises. Students will be required to complete out- of-classroom reading assignments from the course text and workbook, Breaking Routine™: Field Training Officer.

The course content will include:

- What every FTO really needs to know about the operational structure of the Field Training & Evaluation Process.
- The Instructional Relay Race: Taking over where Basic Police Training/Certification left off.
 - Inventorying the probationer's current knowledge and skill proficiencies.
- Selection and use of on-the-job instructional techniques: finding the best tools to meet the challenge.
- Utilization of legally defensible, non-numerical standardized evaluation guidelines.
- Objectively documenting probationer performance.
- Documenting the extent of training and coaching without becoming a best-selling author.
- Strategically addressing Probationer areas of Corrective Action Necessary.
- Utilizing the Probationer Officer Manual as the Field Training playbook.
- Practical Directed Patrol Mapping™: Preparing the Probationer for Proactive – Community Oriented Policing: Dancing with SARA!
- Creating a Self-Reliant™ law enforcement agent.

Special attention: Students should be familiar with their Department's current Field Training and Evaluation Process and should be briefed on their agency's process. Students are encouraged to bring a copy of their agency's Probationary Office Manual and forms to class. Instructor: This course will be taught by: Mr. Bruce Sokolove, Field Training Assoc.
