Supervising & Managing the Field Training Process

(Sokolove Model)

New Lenox Police Department

200 Veterans Parkway, New Lenox, IL 60451

Tuesday - Friday, November 30 – December 3, 2021

8:00 am till 4:00 pm

This course complies with the guidelines of the following mandate(s):
Civil Rights | Const. Use of L.E. Authority | Legal Updates | Procedural Justice

Course Description: This four-day hands-on, problem-based learning course is specifically designed for first-line patrol and administrative support services managers responsible for supervising and managing Field Training Officers and probationary law enforcement employees. Instruction will include all revisions to the Process.

The course emphasizes the necessary components of supervising probationers and Field Training Officers at the patrol shift level to ensure that administrative guidelines and legal requirements are met. The course highlights two essential supervisory responsibilities: (1) the ability to comprehensively examine probationer performance documentation in accordance with the totally revised standardized Field Training and Evaluation Process assessment guidelines, and (2) auditing the probationer's on-the-job training to insure the Field Training Unit utilizes the most appropriate instructional techniques for training task mastery and when necessary, corrective action. The instructional presentation will focus upon discussion of critical Field Training issues as well as hands on completion of the course materials during small group and individual in-class exercises. Students are required to complete out-of-classroom reading assignments.

Course content will include:

- Insuring that your Agency's Field Training and Evaluation Process structure actually works.
- In-class review and assessment of participating agency Probationer's Training and Evaluation Manual (POM).
- Staffing the Field Training Unit: Recruitment, Testing, Selection and Training of FTOs.
- Realistic definition and expectations of Field Training Officer duties/responsibilities.
- Issues of compensation for Field Training Unit personnel.
- FTO scheduling issues/resource allocation.
- Utilizing the non-numerically anchored performance assessment scale and guidelines including 2009 revisions.
- Performance assessment errors that compromise the objectivity and legality of Field Training.
- Auditing the Daily Observation Report: Application of the standardized evaluation guidelines.
- Auditing the FTO's application of the on-shift instructional techniques.
- Auditing Probationer training and coaching documentation. Are the FTOs doing what they were trained to do?
- Conducting the Weekly Performance Summary process meeting.
- Special focus: Not Responding to Training (NRT) Probationer and extension of training

- Supervising the development of the NRT Probationer's Performance Improvement Plan.
- Supervising Probationers during Step V, the Solo Patrol Certification Period.
- Reorientation of personnel returning to Patrol Operations after extended street-absence.
- Preparing Probationer Employment Status Reports/Recommendation for the Chief Executive.
- Assessing the effectiveness of the Field Training Officers and the Field Training Process.
- Avoiding constructive discharge allegations
- Defending against State and Federal Court wrongful discharge claims.

Students should bring a copy of their Agency's current Field Training and Evaluation Process manual and forms.

Instructor: This course will be taught by: Mr. Bruce Sokolove, Field Training Assoc., Ypsilanti, MI.

Railroad Liaison Officer

Morris Police Department
200 E. Chapin St., Morris, IL. 60450

Wednesday; December 1, 2021

8:00 am till 4:00 pm

This course complies with the guidelines of the following mandate(s): Law Update

Course Description: In the United States, a pedestrian or vehicle is struck by a train every three hours. Likewise, there is a train derailment every two hours. Trains and tracks traverse every locality, carrying passengers, freight, and hazardous materials. Should one of these collisions or derailments occur within a local jurisdiction, it becomes the responsibility of local emergency services to respond and safeguard the community. It is essential that every police department has personnel trained to manage these unique types of incidents.

The Railroad Liaison Officer (RLO) Program provides the necessary training for officers to not only respond to and mitigate train related incidents, but also prepares the officers to return to local jurisdictions and provide training/guidance to the remainder of the department on rail safety enforcement and incident mitigation. The RLOs will also be provided resources allowing them to prepare railroad safety presentations to the general public. The RLO will develop connections with railroad special agents and will be the railway expert within your department.

Topics that will be covered include:

- History and Authority of Railroad Police
- History of CN Railway
- Basic Railroad Awareness
- Incident Response
- Safety
- Hazardous Material Incident Response
- Traffic, Trespass, and Other Enforcement
- RLO Benefits and Recognition

Instructor: Jeffrey Price is a Special Agent and CSO with the CN Railroad Police Department, Central Division, located in Harvey, IL, where he oversees safety education and community participation in the States of Illinois, Indiana, and Iowa. S/A Price has been involved with Operation Lifesaver since 2009 and has taught Grade Crossing Collision Investigation (GCCl) and other railroad safety classes at various law enforcement agencies and police academies. Prior to working at CN, S/A Price worked as a Corporal with the Mishawaka Indiana Police Department for 11 years where he served as a Field Training Officer, Drug Recognition Expert (DRE) and Crisis Intervention Team (CIT) member. S/A Price graduated from ILEA in Plainfield, IN, Class 07-171. S/A Price is currently a certified law enforcement instructor as a generalist and emergency vehicle operations (EVO) by the Indiana Law Enforcement Training Board.

Yoga for First Responders 2021

Joliet Park District Inwood Athletic Center

3000 W. Jefferson St., Joliet, IL. 60435

Thursday, December 2, 2021

8:00 am till 4:00 pm

This course complies with the guidelines of the following mandate(s): PENDING

Course Description: This course uses tactical breath work, physical drills, and cognitive behavioral therapy resulting in optimal functioning of the entire psychophysiological system. This includes increasing mental toughness, enhancing tactical skills, preventing injury, self-deescalation, regulating the nervous system and more. The result of consistent training in YFFR Protocol will not only lead to better performance and stress management but an increase in mindful responses versus emotional reactions with interpersonal communication.

This course will introduce the trainee to the basic concepts of yoga, mindfulness, and resilience, functions of the brain and nervous system, as well as the principles of the YFFR Protocol that make it job-specific and culturally informed. Attendees will learn techniques to use right away along with resources to continue their training.

Course Objectives:

1. Explain yoga, its original intent, and address misconceptions.
2. Formulate the steps needed to practice mindfulness.
3. Outline the 3 Principles of Resilience Training.
4. Assess how a career in Law Enforcement can affect the mind, body, and nervous system.
5. Categorize the basic functions of the nervous system and stress response.
6. Conclude the missing skill set in Law Enforcement training.
7. Illustrate how yoga can train the Law Enforcement Officer to perform at his/her highest level of functioning for tactical performance and career longevity.
8. Compare how the YFFR Protocol differs from community yoga in western cultures.
9. Deduce how YFFR can be added into current Law Enforcement Training Standards.
10. Learn and practice the foundational techniques of YFFR protocol.
11. Distinguish which basic YFFR techniques can train the entire system to process stress effectively, build resilience actively, and enhance performance tactically.
12. Adopt YFFR techniques for improving body mechanics, neuromuscular efficiency, awkward shooting positions, breath control, and proprioception for tactical performance.
13. Decide when and how to use and adapt YFFR techniques for optimal value.
14. Understand how to implement YFFR as a consistent training tool personally or for your department.

Officers should wear clothing that they would normally wear during defensive tactics training, as there will be practical applications to the classroom instructions. This will take place on defensive tactics mats. Watch the attached videos for further:

Instructor:

Cheryl Mabry is a 500-hr Certified Yoga teacher, and has been a life-long fitness practitioner and teacher, with a primary focus on Corporate Yoga since 2003. Cheryl's teachings are rooted in safe, effective techniques that honor mental and physical strength with self-awareness. (CONTINUED NEXT PAGE)

After spending years in gymnastics, powerlifting, cycling and strength training, and enduring a life threatening spinal injury...then surgery, Cheryl credits her resiliency to her Yoga practice and mindset training. Her deep desire to help those in the First Responder community began with her father, a Vietnam Veteran, and other extended family members that serve in local communities. After learning about Yoga For First Responders (YFFR) in August of 2018 from a recent Chicago Police Department (CPD) Academy grad, Cheryl began to research and follow YFFR. She completed her Instructor School Class 009 with YFFR in Seattle in 2019. She is currently serving as Fundraising Coordinator with YFFR and has been an active Instructor and speaker for YFFR since certifying. She recently was a Squad Leader for YFFR at Instructor School Class 014 at CPD and spoke at the ILEETA conference back in March of 2021. Cheryl engages in the YFFR Community weekly, and looks to future opportunities to learn and lead. Cheryl resides near Chicago, IL, and is deeply committed to sharing the benefits of the YFFR Protocol.
