NEW COURSE

Communication for Law Enforcement Executives

Plainfield Police Department

14300 Coil Plus Dr., Plainfield, IL. 60544

Wednesday; May 1, 2024

8:00 am till 4:00 pm

This course complies with the guidelines of the following mandate(s):

- Crisis Intervention 2.0 Hours
- Officer Wellness/mental health 1.0 Hour
- Procedural Justice 4.0 Hours

Course Description:

Communication is at the heart of building relationships, thus at the heart of good policing. While it is often pigeon-holed to media relations and social media functions, the insights and skill true communicators bring to the executive arena are unique and valuable. This seminar will define the challenges facing police executives and how communication can support management in reaching their goals for a safe and secure community. The program delves into the role of executive communication. It explores the academia behind internal culture, communications and crisis planning, as well as thinking more purposefully about the overall brand and image of an agency.

Participants will take part in discussions about the value of communications, how to garner support, and how to better use communication theory and practice to earn buy-in for programs that enhance overall communications efforts – both internally and externally – for their agencies. This seminar is suited to senior/executive staff and experienced PIOs/Communications Directors wanting to improve their communications skills.

What Is Covered:

- The Importance of image, trust, and internal culture
- Internal, peer-to-peer, and up-chain communication
- Connecting with our communities and crisis communications
- Personal brand image and leadership coaching strategies

Instructor:

With more than 40 years' experience, Judy Pal has served police executives in both Canada and the U.S. Prior to consulting full-time, she was as an Assistant Commissioner with the NYPD, Director of Operations for FBI-LEEDA, Chief of Staff with the Baltimore, and Milwaukee Police Departments, and served as a member of the command staff overseeing public information with the Atlanta, Savannah, and Halifax Regional police departments. She's conducted image and media training for thousands of law enforcement professionals including FBI Regional Command Colleges across the country. She has conducted training for the command staff of both the NYPD and Philadelphia Police Departments and the Major Cities Chiefs Association. In the summer of 2022, she consulted with Interpol's Project Stadia on crisis communications prior to the World Cup and recently participated in the U.N.-sponsored Counter Terrorism Preparedness Network's annual conference in Washington, DC. Pal authored the 2023 COPS office guide to Strategic Communications for Law Enforcement Executives and holds a master's degree in public relations. She spent five years in television news and four years with a public relations firm before moving to law enforcement.

- Cultural Competency 0.5 Hour
- Human Rights 0.5 Hour
- Procedural Justice 0.5 Hour

Course Description:

It is crucial that U.S. law enforcement is made aware of the dynamics of the jihadist threat on U.S. soil and craft solutions to combat it. This full-day program addresses these and related timely topics as follows. First, in order to provide some context to an understanding of the jihadist phenomenon in the U.S., a history of global jihad is presented: selected ideologues, groups, and their impact on current jihadists. Next, jihadist activities in the U.S. prior to September 11, 2001 will be addressed. Later, jihadist activities in the U.S. post-9/11 will be covered. Subsequently, the backgrounds, routes to radicalization, jihadists' involvement in precursor crimes, and means of discovery by law enforcement will be discussed. Next, best practices in identifying jihadists in the U.S. will be shared. Lastly, current and prospective law enforcement responses to undermining jihadist activities in the U.S. will be presented.

- Procedural Justice 1.0 Hour

Course Description:

It is crucial that U.S. law enforcement appreciates the issue of The April 2013 Boston bombings and subsequent exchanges with the Tsarnev brothers brought to the forefront the issue of family-affiliated extremism/terrorism and law enforcement responses. Unfortunately, up to now, this topic has received scant inquiry and analysis. This workshop will provide some facets of social network analysis, its relevance to families, and extremism/terrorism.

Next, an overview of the phenomenon of extremists/terrorists in families will be shared. The importance of this type of criminality will be underscored. This will be followed by numerous and insightful case studies of U.S. and foreign-based, family-linked extremists/terrorists. By providing these case studies, a better appreciation of this issue will take hold. For contrast, case studies of family members informing about their extremist/terrorist kin will be shared.

Lastly, the presentation will discuss in detail the methodologies for impeding family-linked extremism/terrorism.

 FULL  ~~Small Unmanned Aircraft Systems
(Drones) in Law Enforcement~~

JJC, Weitendorf Agricultural Education Center

17840 W. Laraway Rd., Joliet, IL 60433

Monday-Thursday, May 20-23, 2024

8:00 am till 4:00 pm

This course complies with the guidelines of the following mandate(s):

- Civil Rights 1.0 Hour
- Const. Use of LE Authority 4.0 Hours
- Legal Updates 1.0 Hour
- Procedural Justice 1.0 Hour
- Officer safety techniques 1.0 Hour

Course Description: This training will introduce officers to the use of Small Unmanned Aircraft Systems (sUAS), commonly called “drones”, for both evidence collection and search operations. The course will cover all aspects of UAS operations, including preparations for the mandatory FAA Part 107 licensing. It will include information on the necessary waiver to fly in populated areas and night operation of drones. Hands-on experience with full-sized drones will give officers the confidence and ability to operate in a safe manner. Evidence collections in both photo and video format will be addressed, as well as the legal aspects of how to handle and store this information, as it differs from standard photo/video collection rules.

Finally, the Freedom from Drone Surveillance Act, ILCS 725/167 will be discussed to provide officers and their departments with a clear understanding about operating drones within the confines of the law, including the mandate to inform the State about maintenance and flight operations. Upon completion of this course, attendees will possess the knowledge to successfully take and pass their Part 107 FAA pilot’s exam to become a licensed pilot. They will also be able to assist in creating proper departmental policies and procedures for operating drones.

Course Objectives: Identify the following: All state and federal laws pertaining to Small Unmanned Aircraft Systems (sUAS); different types of airspace; weather and weather-related conditions including cloud formations, types of fog, and wind conditions and how they play a role in the flight of a sUAS; loading and performance factors; airport and airfield standards, including left traffic patterns, METARS, TAFs, sectional charts, longitude and latitude; crew resource management, including types of attitudes, visual observers, Remote Pic, and the effects of drugs and alcohol; radio communication including 2.4 and 5 GHz, AWOS, ASOS, licensed frequencies, and CTAF; Emergency, Lost-Link, and Flyaway procedures; launch and recovery; and Plan B and C.

✓ Perform the procedures for: Vertical takeoff and landing, basic flight maneuvers, recording video, taking still images, autonomous flights, pre-flight and maintenance, equipment replacement, record keeping, pre- and post-flight inspection, and logbook maintenance.

✓ Gain the necessary knowledge and skills to test for and earn the FAA certification for sUAS Operator.

Instructor: Chris Edwards, Associate Professor at Rend Lake College, the primary instructor for this class, holds an AAS degree in Information Technology from Rend Lake College, a Bachelor's Degree in Information Technology from Southern Illinois University Carbondale, and a Master's Degree in Cybersecurity from Liberty University. He is licensed as a Remote Pilot by the FAA. Chris teaches in the Information Technology Division at Rend Lake, with an emphasis on Cybersecurity and Computer Forensics. He has developed the sUAS curriculum for the college. Chris has taught a related series of courses for over three years and has added several other courses to the curriculum.
