First-Line Supervision

(One-week version of Supervision of Police Personnel course)

New Lenox Police Department
200 Veterans Parkway, New Lenox, IL 60451
Monday – Friday; January 28 – February 1, 2019
8:00 am to 4:00 pm

This course complies with the guidelines of the following mandate(s):

Civil Rights | Constitutional & Proper Use of LE Authority | Cultural Competency | Human Rights |
Law Updates | Procedural Justice

Course Description: The First-Line Supervision course prepares first-line supervisors for a successful transition from officer to supervisor, and provides professional development to current supervisors who have had little or no formal training to lead officers. The course provides the fundamentals of leadership and followership to enable students to become more effective in their roles, and provide an educational foundation for life-long learning and professional development.

The one-week course is designed to teach supervisors how to overcome contemporary leadership challenges and focuses on understanding human behavior and day-to-day work relationships with subordinates, superiors and the public. As emerging leaders navigating today's changing law enforcement environment, First-Line Supervision students learn how to effectively motivate, evaluate and discipline employees in order to successfully carry out the visions of their law enforcement agencies.

Who Should Attend:

First-Line Supervision is an absolute must for all new supervisors or soon-to-be-promoted officers. Experienced supervisors are encouraged to attend to improve their leadership and supervisory effectiveness and continue developing in the law enforcement profession.

Course Content:

- The personal profile system: DiSC instrument
- Key elements of dynamic leadership
- Communication
- Supervising Diversity
- Motivational principles
- Performance Management
- Planning and decision making
- The disciplinary process
- Ethics, professionalism and community image
- Risk Management

Instructors: Course instructors are police managers (active or retired) who combine extensive experience with solid academic credentials, provided by NUCPS.

Comprehensive DUI Awareness

Frankfort Police Department,
20602 Lincoln-Way Lane, Frankfort, IL 60423

Friday; February 22, 2019

8:00 am till 4:00 pm

This course complies with the guidelines of the following mandate(s):
Civil Rights | Constitutional & Proper Use of LE Authority | Law Updates

Course Description: This new program will provide students with a comprehensive overview of DUI enforcement and a summary of all impaired driving curricula developed by the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA), which will assist them in determining if they require or desire future DUI training. Emphasis will be placed on the tenets of DUI enforcement not covered in basic training. Officers will also be provided with the genesis and motivation for techniques, procedures, and law currently used in DUI enforcement.

Pharmacology and physiology will be discussed in order to enhance officers' knowledge of the effects of alcohol/drugs on the human body. Eye examinations will focus on the dynamics of pupillary reaction to stimuli related to possible impairment caused by alcohol/drugs.

This course will not train officers in field testing per se, but will review common mistakes made by officers when conducting such tests, thus enabling officers to avoid future defense challenges. This course will emphasize the eight implied consent warnings and the statutory elements required for enforcement. The final portion of the program will focus on the chemical testing of breath, blood, and urine. Relevant court cases will be highlighted throughout the training.

Topics to be addressed include:

- Review of NHTSA curricula
- Pharmacology and physiology of alcohol on the human body and pharmacokinetics utilizing Widmark's formulas
- Retrograde extrapolation
- The three phases of the DUI process as described by NHTSA
- Common errors associated with Standardized Field Sobriety tests (SFST's) and other non-standardized tests
- Eye exams conducted during DUI encounters and the pupillary dynamics of possible alcohol and/or drug impairment
- Approved Preliminary Breath Test instruments that have automatic sampling/self-diagnostics and the administrative rules governing their use
- The 8 Implied Consent Warnings and the statutory elements associated with their use
- Evidential chemical tests an officer may request after a DUI arrest and the administrative rules associated with each test

Instructor: Tony Lebron (Retired M/Sgt; Illinois State Police) will be the instructor.

Member Tuition: None*      Non-Member Tuition: None***

Mental Health Awareness

Frankfort Police Department

20602 Lincoln-Way Lane, Frankfort, IL 60423

Monday; February 25, 2019

8:00 am till 4:00 pm

This course complies with the guidelines of the following mandate(s): Law Update | Mental Health Awareness

Human Rights | Procedural Justice | Use of Force

Course Description: Law enforcement officers have an important role to play in their interactions with community members. This means responding to incidents with individuals who have mental health issues, including diagnosed mental illness.

This 8-hour course, developed by the Illinois Law Enforcement Training & Standards Board, is meant to provide law enforcement officers with an awareness of mental health issues including a history of mental health systems, types of mental illness, signs and symptoms, common treatments & medications, and potential interactions law enforcement may have, on a regular basis, with these individuals, their families and service providers.

Topics covered will include:

- Prevalence of mental illness
- History & impact on law enforcement
- Common forms of mental illness likely to be encountered
- Signs & symptoms of mental illness
- Treatments & medications
- Suicide warning signs
- Police interaction models
- De-escalation strategies
- Involuntary admission process
- HIPPA & FERPA

Instructor: Sgt. Troy Siewert has been with the Orland Park Police Department (OPPD) for over 26 years and holds a master's degree in criminal social justice from Lewis University. He is a certified CIT coordinator, CIT officer, crisis negotiator and Mental Health First Aid instructor as well as a CIT role play evaluator for the Illinois Law Enforcement Training and Standards Board.

Troy started the OPPD Crisis Intervention Team (CIT) in 2015 and has developed the program into what is now recognized as a standard for best practice. He has been a guest speaker at multiple conferences and various local professional groups promoting CIT and the One Mind Campaign. Troy recently worked on a committee to update the International Chiefs of Police model policy for "Responding to Persons Experiencing a Mental Health Crisis."

Domestic Violence Investigations for Patrol

JJC, Weitendorf Agricultural Education Center

17840 W. Laraway Rd, Joliet, IL 60433

Thursday; February 28, 2019

8:00 am till 4:00 pm

GPS alert: use 1151 East Laraway Road 60433, neighbor of Ag. Center

This course complies with the guidelines of the following mandate(s): Civil Rights | Human Rights
Psychology of Domestic Violence | Law Updates | Cultural Competency | Procedural Justice

Course Description: Domestic Violence incidents are one of the most frustrating and repetitive for law enforcement. This eight-hour course, created from a law enforcement and prosecution perspective, was designed to assist officers on scene in conducting a thorough victim-centered investigation of domestic violence in order to assist victims and aid in effective prosecution.

This course exceeds the Domestic Violence mandates and includes the following:

- Domestic Violence laws and interpretation
- Determining the primary aggressor
- Investigation of domestic violence cases from the 9-1-1 call to offender sentencing
- Evidence collection, physical and testimonial
- Problems that arise in prosecution and ways for officers to help overcome them
- Trauma-based interviewing techniques
- Enforcement and prosecution of Orders of Protection, Stalking No Contact Orders, Civil No Contact orders, and bond conditions.
- Strangulation investigation
- Reporting of Domestic Violence
- Impact of police response and failure to respond to domestic violence

This course is designed for patrol officers, first-line supervisors, investigators, and command staff interested in fulfilling mandates on Domestic Violence, providing the State's Attorney's office with prosecutable cases, and reducing repeat domestic calls through police intervention.

Instructors:

Danielle Malone holds an Associate's degree in Law Enforcement and another in Criminal Justice Studies. Danielle joined the Shorewood Police Department in 2006 and became an active member of the Shorewood Police Department's Domestic Violence Unit shortly after being hired. During Danielle's decade long commitment to Domestic Violence, she has instituted a number of victim-centered changes. She launched an Order of Protection Petition program at Shorewood Police, conducted numerous trainings on domestic violence for her fellow Shorewood officers and command staff, and worked with the State's Attorney's Office to bring the Domestic Violence documentation current and relevant for Will County prosecutors and the victim's she serves. Her initiative and care for victims of domestic violence helped promote Danielle to the position of Domestic Violence Unit leader at the Shorewood Police Department.

Danielle serves on the Family Violence Coordinating Counsel, the FVCC law enforcement committee, the M-team, and is assigned part time with Will County Gang Suppression Unit. Danielle's certifications include Elderly Service Officer, Crisis Intervention Team member and Field Training Officer. She is recognized as a domestic violence specialist and has provided a variety of trainings to other law enforcement officers throughout Will County to assist them in recognizing the issues and challenges involved in working with domestic violence victims

Amie Simpson serves as the supervisor for the Will County State's Attorney's domestic violence unit, a specialized unit created by State's Attorney James W. Glasgow to protect the rights of victims of domestic violence. Ms. Simpson graduated from Drake Law School in 1996. She worked in private practice for two years, specializing in family law. In 1999, she began working for the Will County Legal Assistance Program, which provides free legal services to low income residents of Will County. In 2001, she became the Executive Director of the program, and served in that capacity for twelve years. During that time, she also carried a full caseload specializing in domestic violence law. In 2008, she was named the Illinois State Bar Association's Young Attorney of the Year, in recognition of her advocacy for victims. In 2009, she was recognized by the Illinois Legal Aid community as Advocate of the Month.

In 2013, she was recruited by State's Attorney Glasgow to head his Domestic Violence program. The goal of this program is vertical prosecution of all domestic violence cases, which means that the specialized unit follows both misdemeanor and felony domestic violence cases from the charging stage to trial. This process allows prosecutors and advocates to have maximum contact with victims during the progression of each case. It also allows for identification and aggressive prosecution of repeat offenders.

Ms. Simpson has provided numerous trainings for law enforcement, social work professionals, and attorneys on a variety of issues related to domestic violence.
