He has prosecuted 46 felony jury trials, over 300 evidentiary motions, and over 500 bench trials.

Patrick previously was a Chicago Police Officer for approximately 7 years appointed in May of 1993. He was originally assigned as a Patrol Officer, to the 10th district, on the west side of Chicago, and the 1st district, in the downtown area of Chicago for 5 years. Assigned to the Superintendent's Office as a legal officer for 1 year. He was promoted to sergeant of police in 1999 and worked as a supervisor in 9th district on Chicago's south side before becoming an Assistant State's Attorney.

Larry Rafferty is currently the Deputy Chief of the Midlothian Police Department. Before his recent retirement was the Commander of the Criminal Investigations Division for the Cook County Illinois Sheriffs Police Department. Larry had been with the Cook County Sheriffs Police Department for 28 years. During that time, he had worked as a patrol officer and detective. Larry spent 13 years as a detective and was assigned to investigate property crimes, violent crimes and then to the homicide team. Larry also spent 16 years as a member of the South Suburban Major Crimes Task Force. He began as a task force investigator and later became a team leader, squad leader and for six years the commander of the homicide team. As commander of the task force, Larry commanded 85 investigators and 15 supervisors. Larry oversaw the entire criminal investigation including crime scene technicians, search warrant teams, leads and case managers and the social media team. Larry worked on and supervised over 150 homicides with the task force. Larry as a Detective Sergeant supervised the Cook County Sheriffs Police Departments Cold Case Squad for three years. Larry supervised four detectives and his unit was recognized by the Chicago Crime Commission for an outstanding Cold Case Criminal Investigation.

Adam Gulczynski is a Sergeant with the Hickory Hills Police Department. He was previously assigned as a Detective and served in that capacity for 11 years. Adam has been with the Hickory Hills Police Department for 14 years. As a Detective, Adam was assigned to investigate a variety of crimes to include thefts, robberies, burglaries, financial crimes, cyber-crimes, sexual assaults, crimes against children, and homicides. Adam has worked and assisted with hundreds of Felony Investigations in Hickory Hills and the surrounding communities, often specializing in the location, recovery, and analysis of electronic information. Adam spent 8 years assigned to the South Suburban Major Crimes Task Force, first assigned as an investigator, and serving as a Supervisor for 5 years. Adam was responsible for overseeing the development, analysis, and preservation of information from electronic sources i.e. cellular phones, social media, and other electronic information sources. Adam was also the Commander of the Southwest Major Crimes Task Force and supervised 21 investigators during homicide and kidnapping cases.

Railroad Liaison Officer

New Lenox Police Department
200 Veterans Parkway, New Lenox, IL 60451

Tuesday; May 7, 2019

8:00 am till 4:00 pm

This course complies with the guidelines of the following mandate(s): Law Update

Course Description: In the United States, a pedestrian or vehicle is struck by a train every three hours. Likewise, there is a train derailment every two hours. Trains and tracks traverse every locality, carrying passengers, freight, and hazardous materials. Should one of these collisions or derailments occur within a local jurisdiction, it becomes the responsibility of local emergency services to respond and safeguard the community. It is essential that every police department has personnel trained to manage these unique types of incidents.

The Railroad Liaison Officer (RLO) Program provides the necessary training for officers to not only respond to and mitigate train related incidents, but also prepares the officers to return to local jurisdictions and provide training/guidance to the remainder of the department on rail safety enforcement and incident mitigation. The RLOs will also be provided resources allowing them to prepare railroad safety presentations to the general public. The RLO will develop connections with railroad special agents and will be the railway expert within your department.

Topics that will be covered include:

- History and Authority of Railroad Police
- History of CN Railway
- Basic Railroad Awareness
- Incident Response
- Safety
- Hazardous Material Incident Response
- Traffic, Trespass, and Other Enforcement
- RLO Benefits and Recognition

Instructor: Jeffrey Price is currently a Special Agent and CSO with the CN Railroad Police U.S. Central Division, which includes the Midwestern states of Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Nebraska, and Michigan's Upper Peninsula. Prior to CN, Jeffrey was a Corporal with the Mishawaka Indiana Police Department for 11 years where he served as a Field Training Officer, Drug Recognition Expert (DRE), Crisis Intervention Team (CIT) member, recruiting/social media officer and a background investigator.

Jeffrey graduated from the Indiana Law Enforcement Academy (ILEA) in Plainfield, IN, Class 07-171. Jeffrey is currently a certified law enforcement instructor as a generalist and emergency vehicle operations (EVO) by the Indiana Law Enforcement Training Board. Jeffrey is also a certified Grade Crossing Collision Instructor (GCCCI) through Operation Lifesaver.

Illinois Department of Transportation and the University of Illinois-Springfield

This free course is open to any Law Enforcement Officer and Prosecuting Attorney

PURPOSE OF COURSE: This 3-hour course was created by Jennifer Cifaldi, the Illinois Traffic Safety Resource Prosecutor. This program was developed with the intent of providing law enforcement and prosecutors with the knowledge and skills to successfully use the proper Warnings to Motorists and remove the impaired drivers from our Illinois' roadways. Additionally, they will be provided with a case law update to help them navigate their way through DUI courts.

COURSE OVERVIEW: Every year, impaired drivers cause thousands of traffic deaths and injuries. Prosecutors and law enforcement officers need the skills to be sure that the summary suspensions are not rescinded. This starts with the law enforcement officer being aware of which of the many Warnings to Motorists are appropriate in a given situation.

For the officers: This class will instruct you on the various Warnings to Motorists used for the Illinois implied consent law. The officer will be able to recognize which Warning to read depending on the facts presented. The officers will also know how to assist the Prosecutor in the courtroom with effective testimony during the summary suspension hearings to avoid having the suspension rescinded.

For the Prosecutors: This program will provide you with the tools on how to successfully defend Petitions to Rescind Summary Suspensions. You will walk away from this course with the confidence needed in your case so as not to negotiate the suspension as part of the criminal case. You will have a better understanding of the Warnings that Officers issue and will be well versed in the relevant case law.

This class consists of classroom instruction and the facilitation of discussion amongst participants on which Warnings to use and common attacks that defense attorneys use in Summary Suspension hearings. Additionally, participants will be provided current case law relevant to summary suspensions.

COURSE GOALS: By the end of this course, students will be able to do the following:

- Understand the various Warnings to Motorist and know under what circumstances each Warning should be utilized
- Successfully defend Petitions to Rescind Statutory Summary Suspensions
- Cite the relevant case law
- Be better prepared to testify at Summary Suspension Hearings

Instructor:

Jennifer Cifaldi is the Illinois Traffic Safety Prosecutor. She was an Assistant State's Attorney for 20 years in Adams County, Illinois and has been prosecuting DUI's within her county for over 15 years. In 2007, Jennifer implemented a DUI search warrant program within Adams County and has seen nothing but success from it. She has previously worked with the Dept. of Transportation to share this program with other counties throughout the State and has presented nationally on this program. In July of 2016, Jennifer was presented with an award for the National Prosecutor of the Year due to her development of her "No Refusal Search Warrant Program" and her willingness to share it with other prosecutors and law enforcement agencies.

Autism Awareness for Law Enforcement

Plainfield Police Department

14300 Coil Plus Drive, Plainfield, IL 60544

Monday; May 20, 2019

8:00 am till 4:00 pm

This course complies with the guidelines of the following mandate(s): Mental Health Awareness
Civil Rights | Use of Force | Procedural Justice | Human Rights | Constitutional and Proper Use of L.E.
Authority

Course Description: This one day, 8-hour program has been designed to provide students with basic understanding of Autism Spectrum Disorders and strategies for interactions with individuals with an Autism Spectrum Disorder. Over the years the number of individuals diagnosed with Autism Spectrum Disorders (ASD) has risen drastically, resulting in increased contacts with law enforcement. This training will show students how inappropriate responses by individuals with Autism Spectrum Disorders, such as lack of communication skills, aggressive behavior, and obsessive-compulsive behaviors can be reconciled. This can be done by identifying procedures that a law enforcement officer should/may employ when interacting with an individual with a disability and identify the procedures a law enforcement officer should follow to ensure the safety and cooperation of a person with Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD).

Course Topics:

- Explanation of Autism
- Characteristics of Autism
- Strategies for Interaction
- De-escalation Strategies
- Wandering Issues
- Communication Strategies (verbal and non-verbal)
- Interviewing Victims/Offenders
- Use of Force Considerations
- Law Enforcement Programs

Instructor: Sergeant Stefan Bjes, is currently a patrol sergeant and has served with the Addison Police Department for over 17 years. Stefan is an active CIT officer and is one of two supervisors for the department's CIT program. He has served the department in several different capacities, such a gang investigator, school resource officer, use of force instructor, rapid response instructor, field training officer, evidence technician, and juvenile officer. He is also currently a board member of the DuPage Juvenile Officers Association. Stefan is also an adjunct faculty member at Waubonsee Community College and the Suburban Law Enforcement Academy at the College of DuPage.

Stefan has extensive experience, through his personal and professional life, with interacting with individuals with Autism Spectrum Disorders

Illinois General Explosives Recognition and Requirements

JJC, Weitendorf Agricultural Center
17840 W. Laraway Rd, Joliet, IL 60433
Thursday, May 23, 2019
8:00 am till 4:00 pm

GPS alert: use 1151 East Laraway Road 60433, neighbor of Ag. Center

This course complies with the guidelines of the following mandate(s): Law Updates

Course Description: This is a one day 8-hour class being provided by the Illinois Department of Natural Resources, OMM-Explosives and Agg. Division. The class will provide hands on education for recognizing the different types of high/low explosives and their requirements at both the State of Illinois level, as well as the BATFE (Federal) level. In addition to general explosive recognition, the specifics and differences of consumer fireworks (1.4) vs. professional grade fireworks (1.3G) and the laws that pertain to them will be discussed in great detail.

This class is being provided by the IDNR to help educate law enforcement and to provide direct assistance, on scene, when dealing with explosive situations. The IDNR regulates / investigates high and low explosives including 1.1, 1.2, 1.3, and 1.5. Too many times law enforcement does not have the education to know how to identify an explosive and/or if a bomb squad needs to be called. Bomb Squads, Explosives Breaching SWAT Teams, and BOMB Dog Handlers already possess the IL Individual Explosives License. The IDNR must be notified immediately upon any recovery of a regulated explosive and/or device to pursue the information necessary for enforcement.

If the Officer and their respective department so desire; after completing the class and passing the exam they can receive an IL IDNR Individual Explosives License, to be used in association with their law enforcement duties. A random monthly bank of test questions will be administered at the end of the class which will consist of 50 questions that will be multiple choice and/or True-False. Each officer receiving the license will fill out an application and must pass the test with an 80% or higher. Officers who do not pass the test will be provided an opportunity to retest in the near future.

- Licensing is recommended but not required to attend.

There are eight chapters covered in the presentation and each officer will be provided a packet of information from the IDNR consisting of a copy of the IL Explosives Act, the Admin Codes that Apply to the Act, a general explosives safety packet, a packet for note taking as the presentation is given, and a small 4-page packet for officers to keep available as a quick reference guide for explosive identification purposes, while on duty.

Key topical areas to be addressed include the following:

- Illinois Explosives Act
- Explosive Storage Requirements-Law Enforcement and Non-Law Enforcement
- Explosives Safety/Recognition/Handling (m-devices, homemade sticks, etc.)
- Fireworks- 1.3G low explosives (professional fireworks) vs 1.4 low explosives
- Enforcement of 1.3G vs. 1.4 and their requirements

Instructor:

The instructor for this class is Nick Sterling who currently is a Specialist/Inspector/Investigator for the Illinois Department of Natural Resources, OMM-Explosives and Agg. Division. Mr. Sterling's current territory includes Cook, Lake, McHenry, DuPage, Kane, Kendall, Gundy, and Will Counties. Sterling has been with the Department for four years and inspects/investigates all explosive storage facilities (Law enforcement and Non-Law Enforcement), explosives accidents, explosives incidents, and performs random checks/investigations on both licensed and unlicensed individuals. Sterling has 18 years of high explosives experience and teaches the IL Individual Explosives License Class on a regular basis. Over the past few years Mr. Sterling has noticed a lack of education when law enforcement agencies are dealing with explosives related issues, and hopes to help prevent these issues in the future through education and assistance.

Domestic Violence Investigations for Patrol

New Lenox Police Department

200 Veterans Parkway, New Lenox, IL 60451

Friday; May 24, 2019

8:00 am till 4:00 pm

This course complies with the guidelines of the following mandate(s): Civil Rights | Human Rights
Psychology of Domestic Violence | Law Updates | Cultural Competency | Procedural Justice

Course Description: Domestic Violence incidents are one of the most frustrating and repetitive for law enforcement. This eight-hour course, created from a law enforcement and prosecution perspective, was designed to assist officers on scene in conducting a thorough victim-centered investigation of domestic violence in order to assist victims and aid in effective prosecution.

This course exceeds the Domestic Violence mandates and includes the following:

- Domestic Violence laws and interpretation
- Determining the primary aggressor
- Investigation of domestic violence cases from the 9-1-1 call to offender sentencing
- Evidence collection, physical and testimonial
- Problems that arise in prosecution and ways for officers to help overcome them
- Trauma-based interviewing techniques
- Enforcement and prosecution of Orders of Protection, Stalking No Contact Orders, Civil No Contact orders, and bond conditions.
- Strangulation investigation
- Reporting of Domestic Violence
- Impact of police response and failure to respond to domestic violence

This course is designed for patrol officers, first-line supervisors, investigators, and command staff interested in fulfilling mandates on Domestic Violence, providing the State's Attorney's office with prosecutable cases, and reducing repeat domestic calls through police intervention.

Instructors:

Danielle Malone holds an Associate's degree in Law Enforcement and another in Criminal Justice Studies. Danielle joined the Shorewood Police Department in 2006 and became an active member of the Shorewood Police Department's Domestic Violence Unit shortly after being hired. During Danielle's decade long commitment to Domestic Violence, she has instituted a number of victim-centered changes. She launched an Order of Protection Petition program at Shorewood Police, conducted numerous trainings on domestic violence for her fellow Shorewood officers and command staff, and worked with the State's Attorney's Office to bring the Domestic Violence documentation current and relevant for Will County prosecutors and the victim's she serves. Her initiative and care for victims of domestic violence helped promote Danielle to the position of Domestic Violence Unit leader at the Shorewood Police Department.

Danielle serves on the Family Violence Coordinating Counsel, the FVCC law enforcement committee, the M-team, and is assigned part time with Will County Gang Suppression Unit. Danielle's certifications include Elderly Service Officer, Crisis Intervention Team member and Field Training Officer. She is recognized as a domestic violence specialist and has provided a variety of trainings to other law enforcement officers throughout Will County to assist them in recognizing the issues and challenges involved in working with domestic violence victims

Amie Simpson serves as the supervisor for the Will County State's Attorney's domestic violence unit, a specialized unit created by State's Attorney James W. Glasgow to protect the rights of victims of domestic violence. Ms. Simpson graduated from Drake Law School in 1996. She worked in private practice for two years, specializing in family law. In 1999, she began working for the Will County Legal Assistance Program, which provides free legal services to low income residents of Will County. In 2001, she became the Executive Director of the program, and served in that capacity for twelve years. During that time, she also carried a full caseload specializing in domestic violence law. In 2008, she was named the Illinois State Bar Association's Young Attorney of the Year, in recognition of her advocacy for victims. In 2009, she was recognized by the Illinois Legal Aid community as Advocate of the Month.

In 2013, she was recruited by State's Attorney Glasgow to head his Domestic Violence program. The goal of this program is vertical prosecution of all domestic violence cases, which means that the specialized unit follows both misdemeanor and felony domestic violence cases from the charging stage to trial. This process allows prosecutors and advocates to have maximum contact with victims during the progression of each case. It also allows for identification and aggressive prosecution of repeat offenders.

Ms. Simpson has provided numerous trainings for law enforcement, social work professionals, and attorneys on a variety of issues related to domestic violence.
