This course complies with the guidelines of the following mandate(s):

- Civil Rights 1.0 Hour
- Cultural Competency 4.0 Hours
- Human Rights 1.0 Hour
- Procedural Justice 1.0 Hour

Purpose: Law enforcement officers today must understand the need to be educated in the differences that exist among the many cultures that we have in America. It is important that individuals who engage in law enforcement learn to understand and respect the differences among the many cultures today. This understanding will assist in enhancing the public perception of law enforcement and thus provide officers with the knowledge, skills and attitude necessary for dealing with cultural differences and thus enhance the professional image of today's law enforcement officers.

Course Description: Policing a Diversified America is a specialized course of study for law enforcement officers, who as part of their calls for service and proactive responsibilities, will likely encounter people that may be different from who they are and people who have different views on life. With this 8-hour training course officers will be able use the knowledge attained to better relate to a variety of cultures and communicate/interact effectively through understanding.

The key components of this course will cover the following:

- The definition of culture and the many types of cultures that exist today in America.
- The history of cultural tensions in America
- The mental conditioning of bias
- Discussion on cultural stereotyping
- Presumptions about Law Enforcement and Culture
- Controversies involving the excessive use of force
- The Civil Rights Act
- Laws Governing Racial Profiling
- Case Laws Involving Law Enforcement and Bias
- Effective Communication Through Understanding

About the Instructor: The course will be conducted by Traneil Thomas. Traneil is currently a Sergeant and former detective with over 20 years of Law Enforcement experience. Traneil is also a Marine Corps Veteran and holds a Bachelor's Degree in Criminal Justice. He is currently the CEO and Owner of Trained Ready Armed Defense Training & Consulting; he is also the owner of Trained Ready & Armed Apparel. Traneil grew up on the south-side of Chicago and is well versed in both urban and suburban lifestyles.

Yoga for First Responders

Plainfield Police Department
14300 Coil Plus Dr., Plainfield, IL 60544
Thursday, October 13, 2022
8:00 am till 4:00 pm

This course complies with the guidelines of the following mandate(s):

- Officer Wellness/Mental Health                      8.0 Hours

Course Description: This course uses tactical breath work, physical drills, and cognitive behavioral therapy resulting in optimal functioning of the entire psychophysiological system. This includes increasing mental toughness, enhancing tactical skills, preventing injury, self-deescalation, regulating the nervous system and more. The result of consistent training in YFFR Protocol will not only lead to better performance and stress management but an increase in mindful responses versus emotional reactions with interpersonal communication.

This course will introduce the trainee to the basic concepts of yoga, mindfulness, and resilience, functions of the brain and nervous system, as well as the principles of the YFFR Protocol that make it job-specific and culturally informed. Attendees will learn techniques to use right away along with resources to continue their training.

Course Objectives:

1. Explain yoga, its original intent, and address misconceptions.
2. Formulate the steps needed to practice mindfulness.
3. Outline the 3 Principles of Resilience Training.
4. Assess how a career in Law Enforcement can affect the mind, body, and nervous system.
5. Categorize the basic functions of the nervous system and stress response.
6. Conclude the missing skill set in Law Enforcement training.
7. Illustrate how yoga can train the Law Enforcement Officer to perform at his/her highest level of functioning for tactical performance and career longevity.
8. Compare how the YFFR Protocol differs from community yoga in western cultures.
9. Deduce how YFFR can be added into current Law Enforcement Training Standards.
10. Learn and practice the foundational techniques of YFFR protocol.
11. Distinguish which basic YFFR techniques can train the entire system to process stress effectively, build resilience actively, and enhance performance tactically.
12. Adopt YFFR techniques for improving body mechanics, neuromuscular efficiency, awkward shooting positions, breath control, and proprioception for tactical performance.
13. Decide when and how to use and adapt YFFR techniques for optimal value.
14. Understand how to implement YFFR as a consistent training tool personally or for your department.

Officers should wear clothing that they would normally wear during defensive tactics training, as there will be practical applications to the classroom instructions. This will take place on defensive tactics mats. Watch the attached videos for further:

Instructor: Cheryl Mabry is a 500-hr Certified Yoga teacher, and has been a life-long fitness practitioner and teacher, with a primary focus on Corporate Yoga since 2003. Cheryl's teachings are rooted in safe, effective techniques that honor mental and physical strength with self-awareness.

After spending years in gymnastics, powerlifting, cycling and strength training, and enduring a life threatening spinal injury...then surgery, Cheryl credits her resiliency to her Yoga practice and mindset training. Her deep desire to help those in the First Responder community began with her father, a Vietnam Veteran, and other extended family members that serve in local communities. After learning about Yoga For First Responders (YFFR) in August of 2018 from a recent Chicago Police Department (CPD) Academy grad, Cheryl began to research and follow YFFR. She completed her Instructor School Class 009 with YFFR in Seattle in 2019. She is currently serving as Fundraising Coordinator with YFFR and has been an active Instructor and speaker for YFFR since certifying. She recently was a Squad Leader for YFFR at Instructor School Class 014 at CPD and spoke at the ILEETA conference back in March of 2021. Cheryl engages in the YFFR Community weekly, and looks to future opportunities to learn and lead. Cheryl resides near Chicago, IL, and is deeply committed to sharing the benefits of the YFFR Protocol.

Asset Forfeiture & Financial Crimes Training

New Lenox Police Department

200 Veterans Parkway, New Lenox, IL. 60451

Thursday, October 13, 2022

8:00 am till 4:00 pm

This course complies with the guidelines of the following mandate(s):

- |                              |           |
|------------------------------|-----------|
| • Civil Rights               | 0.5 Hour  |
| • Const. Use of LE Authority | 2.0 Hours |
| • Legal Updates              | 5.0 Hours |
| • Procedural Justice         | 0.5 Hours |

Course Description: Forfeitures can be a valuable tool to law enforcement in the following areas: improving public safety by forfeiting the DUI and suspended driver's car, taking away expensive vehicles and other assets from drug dealers, seizing bank accounts of criminals who commit check/credit card fraud and other financial crimes, forfeiting real property paid for with proceeds of mortgage fraud or any other crime where money is derived.

This course will provide law enforcement officers an understanding of forfeiture law in Illinois and how to successfully incorporate the forfeiture component into criminal investigations and prosecutions. After reviewing applicable statutes, the course will cover practical implementation of those statutes through real world examples. Additionally, techniques for locating assets and building financial cases will be discussed. This course will be useful for patrol officers; officers in specialized units such as narcotics, gangs or financial crimes; command staff; and agency policymakers. For those individuals who have already attended a forfeiture training, this course will broaden your ability to implement forfeiture law into your investigations and capture previously untouched assets of criminal enterprises.

Some of the topics include:

- Statutory basis for forfeiture in Illinois based on the Controlled Substances Act, The Money Laundering Act, The Gang Act, Article 36, and miscellaneous statutes
- Locating and discovering hidden assets and co-conspirators
- Putting together the forfeiture case simultaneous to the criminal case
- Search warrant execution – how to build a forfeiture case during a search warrant
- Techniques and tips for building a financial crimes case
- Use of forfeited property

Instructor: Assistant State's Attorney Dant Foulk of the Will County State's Attorney's Office, manages the Forfeiture Unit and serves in the office's Financial Crimes Prosecution Unit. In the Forfeiture Unit, Dant specializes in identifying, locating, seizing and forfeiting illegally gained proceeds from narcotics and money laundering activities and other financial crimes. In the Financial Crimes Unit, he coordinates the long-term investigations of complex financial crimes, including credit card and check fraud rings, identity theft conspiracies and organized money laundering activities.
